

Video editor

 Test duration: 45 minutes

 Difficulty level: Moderate

1. When starting a video editing project, what's the first step?

- A) Apply color correction
- B) Organize the footage
- C) Add background music
- D) Export a rough cut

Correct answer: B) Organize the footage

2. What is the main function of a "timeline" in video editing software?

- A) Adjust audio levels
- B) Sequence clips
- C) Add subtitles
- D) Export the final video

Correct answer: B) Sequence clips

3. What does "three-point editing" help achieve?

- A) Set start and end points
- B) Place clips accurately
- C) Apply color grading
- D) Add special effects

Correct answer: B) Place clips accurately

4. Which format is widely used for high-quality web video?

- A) AVI
- B) FLV
- C) MP4
- D) MOV

Correct answer: C) MP4

5. How can you keep colors consistent across scenes?

- A) Apply a filter
- B) Use color grading
- C) Increase saturation
- D) Adjust brightness

Correct answer: B) Use color grading

6. What does "keyframing" allow you to do?

- A) Add transitions
- B) Animate properties
- C) Create still frames
- D) Add text overlays

Correct answer: B) Animate properties

7. How can you maintain engagement in a long video?

- A) Keep consistent length
- B) Use dynamic editing
- C) Apply the same transition
- D) Use one music track

Correct answer: B) Use dynamic editing

8. What is "B-roll" used for?

- A) Main footage
- B) Supporting shots
- C) Behind-the-scenes
- D) Outtakes

Correct answer: B) Supporting shots

9. What is the purpose of "rendering" in video editing?

- A) Apply effects
- B) Generate preview
- C) Save the project
- D) Add audio

Correct answer: B) Generate preview

10. What's a best practice for exporting video for different platforms?

- A) Same settings for all
- B) Adjust for each platform
- C) Highest quality only
- D) Reduce length

Correct answer: B) Adjust for each platform